IN MEMORIAN

In loving memory of the Christmas season of my beloved husband, James B. Goin, who passed away July 23, 1974.
Have you ever lost a loved one who was very dear to you?
One you loved so very much and miss him like I do.
Have you ever had a heartache?
Or ever felt the pain, or ever shed those bitter tears that drop like falling rain?
If you have never had this feeling then I pray you never do.
For when God takes your husband.
He takes a part of you.
Sadly missed by wife, Marian O. Goin

Tea Topics

By David and Eunice Bigelow

Winter's here again—and it's prime-time to take good care of yourself. One thing that goes hand-in-glove with cold weather is hot tea. A cup of tea means different things to many people: a leisurely, relaxing break in the day; a bracing, warm-up drink, something special to linger over with friends; even a folk remedy for the sniffles. For time-honored tea with a new twist, R.C. Bigelow (makers of the unique Constant Comment tea) has developed some special blends including the hearty English Breakfast tea and full-bodied Irish tea and the savory Earl Grey tea.

In Memorian

Robert Edward Trent died December 30, 1973.
Dear Robert,

Here it is another Christmas and how in my heart I wish you were with me - - in a way I'm sure you must know.

Life is very lonely without you but I still remember the things you told me and everything is true.

Robert, I never got a chance to tell you "good-bye" that Sunday morning but in my search for an answer I have concluded that whatever happened it was not intended that I should understand. I have read the verses in the Bible which you marked but still do not have the answer. I do want you to know that I love you, miss you but God sustains me and is my refuge in my lonliness.

Bobby and Helen have another little boy. I can often hear you express your desire for a little girl. Somehow I feel you must know how Brian would ask for "Grandpa Robert".

The evenings make me cry for that's when you would be coming home for dinner and now there is only emptiness. I often go to your grave and ponder as to just what happened.

Friends often ask how I am doing. I say "O. K." but if they only knew how empty my heart is and how lonely I am without you. One must go on doing the best one can. If it wasn't for God, I would feel like giving up but time is teaching me to live one day at a time trying to smile and trying to appear happy.

I remember you always had a smile for everyone and your heart was one of pure gold for those who knew and loved you.

Sadly missed by someone who loves you very much.
Your wife, Lucy

SOCIAL SECURITY 987-65-4320

Q. My husband is severely disabled and we think he's eligible for supplemental security income. I've heard that disability claims take a long time to process, and we need money now. Is there some way we can get some money to help us while he's waiting on his claim?

A. Under the law, a person who is found to be presumptively disabled and is otherwise eligible can get supplemental security income payments for up to 3 months while he waits for the decision on his disability claim. An applicant can be presumed disabled if he has one of the following conditions: loss of two or more limbs; loss of a leg at the hip; total deafness; immobility (or bed confinement); stroke; cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, or muscular atrophy; diabetes with the loss of a foot; Down's Syndrome; or severe mental deficiency. When your husband applies for supplemental security income, the people in the social security office will tell him if he can get presumptive disability payments.
